

Do not overturn New Jersey's Do Not Call Law. I absolutely hate to pick up my phone and hear the voice of a person trying to sell me something. I pay the bill. It is in my name and I should have the authority as to who has access to the number. I do not nor will I ever buy any products from a telemarketeer. I do not conduct business over the phone. Please leave our law alone.